I returned to Buenos Aires at 1930 hours today. Believe representations made by Embassy were maximum that could be achieved given Guido's incapacity to grasp major issues. I intend to see Muniz later tonight and to follow up with Interior Minister Martinez who has principal ear of President. In consequence, would urge Department not pay too much attention to doubts expressed EMBTEL 1152. I regard Muniz's reaction as indicated final paragraph EMBTEL 1154 as more indicative of course this government will take.
